Organizes

Three-day Online Workshop on Sustainable Development Goals and Disability (July 13-15, 2022) Call for Applications

Council for Social Development (CSD), Hyderabad is inviting applications for a three-day Workshop on Sustainable Development Goals and Disability, sponsored by ICSSR, New Delhi to be organized in online mode. The workshop's objectives are to introduce the practitioners and stakeholders in the Disability sector to Sustainable Development Goals and its importance in achieving disability inclusivity. This would also involve apprising them of existing laws and policies in India related to disability. The workshop also aims to provide sensitivity training and help participants identify the intersectionality of marginalization in disability. The workshop will provide a hands-on approach to participants which would equip them with the analytical tools to identify gaps and devise strategies to fulfil the SDG Disability indicators.

Eligibility

Applications are invited from practitioners and personnel working in the disability sector in civil society organisations, government departments, elected representatives of local government institutions and research scholars working on disability studies.

How to Apply

The applicants need to fill out the google application form given below on or before June 15, 2022.

Application Form: <https://forms.gle/VcgMjxu9GHtHaGH46>

The course is virtual and the links for the workshop will be shared with selected participants only. The selected participants must produce a No Objection Certificate from their Institution of study or work.
